SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

AUGUST 1933

[This publication is issued monthly for the dissemination of information, instructions, rulings, etc., concerning the work of the Bureau of Animal Industry. Free distribution is limited to persons in the service of the Bureau, establishments at which the Federal meat inspection is conducted, public officers whose duties make it desirable for them to have such information, and journals especially concerned. Others desiring copies may obtain them from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., at 5 cents each or 25 cents a year (foreign, 45 cents). A supply will be sent to each official in charge of a station or branch of the Bureau service, who should promptly distribute copies to members of his force. A file should be kept at each station for reference.]

NOTICE REGARDING MEAT INSPECTION

Cured, Boneless, Pork Loins

All boneless pork loins which are cured in official establishments shall have been subjected to the prescribed treatment for the destruction of trichinae prior to being forwarded from the curing establishment. Such treatment may be applied before, during, or after curing.

When such cured loins, whether smoked or unsmoked, have been treated to destroy trichinae, they may be forwarded from official establishments to any destination without seals or identification other than the marks of inspection and received into official establishments as product free from live trichinae.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ACT

Docket no. 407.—In re Murphy Bros. & Co., market agency and dealer, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture, on December 28, 1932, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had used unfair, unjustly discriminatory, and deceptive practices or devices in connection with the handling of livestock in commerce. On June 28, 1933, respondent signed a statement admitting the truth of the matters and things alleged and waived a hearing thereon. On August 15, 1933, respondent was suspended from registration as a market agency and dealer for a period of 6 months. Respondent was also ordered to cease and desist from engaging in and using unfair and unjustly discriminatory and deceptive practices or devices in connection with the handling of livestock in commerce; and to keep and maintain accounts, records, and memoranda pertaining to its transactions.

Docket no. 416.—In re Degen & Amschler, market agency and dealer, Chicago, Ill. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture, on July 7, 1933, issued an inquiry, alleging that respondents had violated title III of the Packers and Stockyards Act in that they had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of their obligations incurred as a market agency and dealer. Respondents filed a bond on August 9, 1933, with the Bureau of Animal Industry. On August 12, 1933, respondents admitted the truth of the matters alleged and waived a hearing thereon. On August 29, 1933, respondents were ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a market agency and dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to secure the performance of their obligations, or submitting some other satisfactory guaranty.

Docket no. 423.—In re J. C. Farrell, dealer, Pittsburgh, Pa. The Acting Secretary of Agriculture, on July 25, 1933, issued an inquiry alleging that respondent had violated title III of the Packers and Stockyards Act in that he had failed, neglected, and refused to execute and maintain a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of his obligations incurred as a dealer. Respondent admitted the truth of the matters alleged and waived a hearing thereon. On August 29, 1933, respondent was suspended from registration as a dealer for a period of 6 months, with leave during said period to apply for a revocation of this suspension upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary that he has filed a reasonable bond to suitable trustees to secure the performance of his obligations, or has submitted some other satisfactory guaranty. Respondent was also ordered to cease and desist from doing business as a dealer without executing and maintaining a reasonable bond to secure the performance of his obligations, or submitting some other satisfactory guaranty.

Stockyards Withdrawn from Jurisdiction

The Farmers' Live Stock Market, located at Bristol, Va.-Tenn., was withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the Packers and Stockyards Act on August 24, 1933, because the size of the yards has been reduced to less than 20,000 square feet.

Designated as Public Stockyards

The Mississippi Valley Stockyards, St. Louis, Mo., has been designated as a public stockyards as defined in paragraph 8, section 1, regulation 1, B.A.I. Order 309, effective August 21, 1933.

Public Stockyards Discontinued

On and after February 16, 1933, the Union Stockyards, Benning, D.C., and on and after August 15, 1933, the Brighton Stockyards, Brighton, Mass., are no longer designated as public stockyards as defined in paragraph 8 section 1, regulation 1, B.A.I. Order 309.
